About MCC Research Colloquium

Since the inception of NIRF ranking, academic institutions urge their faculty members to come up with research publications and patents. This predicament forces some faculty members to publish their papers in predatory journals. To address this issue, our faculty were desperately in need of awareness on research methodology and research metrics. About twenty-five faculty members from across academic domains in Madras Christian College met in an informal forum with an aim to deliberate on the nuances of research methodology in digital dispensation during the Covid-19 pandemic situation through virtual platform. This informal act of discussions accompanied by lectures among peers gave way to the formation of Madras Christian College Research Colloquium (MCCRC), a formalized virtual Community Learning on the campus during the lockdown, paving the way for capacity building among faculty group that is heterogenous in nature. What our participants say about our previous FDP from the feedback...

The 5-day workshop on AI tools and their uses in research writing was very informative and useful. It provided valuable insights into how various AI platforms can assist in literature review, plagiarism checking, reference management, and improving the overall quality and efficiency of academic writing.

About our Speakers

The session was generally high informative, practical and modern to academic need. The resource persons who handled the session were highly knowledge clearly explained all topics. Specific AI tools like chatgpt, zotero, mendeley were clarified how we use by prompt. I gained new ideas and now more confident to exploring new technologies.

About our Sessions

My heartfelt thanks for the team. As a research scholar this program means a lot for me. As a beginner of research I gained lots of knowledge about Data collection, literature review, writing paper and publishing with AI Tools. Thankyou again for the well organised program.

A well managed workshop by ensuring that every single person has attended and paid attention to the every aspects of the workshop

The FDP was very well organized with sessions running smoothly and on time. The coordination between resource persons and participants was seamless and the structure of the program ensured a good balance between theoretical and practical insights. The communication and scheduling were clear throughout.

About our Assignments

The FDP was insightful and engaging. Though it was a hectic experience, I personally enjoyed it, as it encouraged deeper learning through assignments and helped us refine our understanding.

About our sessions

The FDP was excellently organized, with a perfect balance of theory and practical application. Each day built upon the previous one, making the learning experience cohesive and engaging. The sessions were well-coordinated, and the resource persons were knowledgeable and approachable.

The FDP was highly informative and well-structured. It provided valuable insights into a wide range of AI tools that support research paper writing and literature review. Each session was engaging and greatly contributed to enhancing our research skills.
