

- The Department of English is one of the oldest departments in the 177 year old Madras Christian College.
- The Department of English (Shift II) was introduced in 1999 offering Part II English papers to students of all disciplines.
- The Department began to offer an undergraduate programme – BA English Language and Literature during the academic year 2014-2015.