

FEB-02-2007(FRI) 11:48

Furman Univ. Pres. Office

(FAX)864 294 3939

P. 002/002

FURMAN

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

MADRAS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, CHENNAI, INDIA

AND

FURMAN UNIVERSITY, GREENVILLE SC, USA

In recognition of our common mission as two institutions committed to making a difference to our societies, we Furman University (Greenville, SC, USA) and Madras Christian College (Chennai, India) agree to seek ways to support each others work. We are committed to finding opportunities for working together institutionally and to fostering collaboration between our communities. Students and scholars from both our countries will be enriched by cooperating with each other.

We agree to encourage mutual academic cooperation by:

- Promoting institutional collaboration by staff in joint teaching and/or research projects.
- Exchanging academic information and publications.
- Fostering internationalism through student interactions and exchanges.
- Undertaking other related activities linked to our collective Mission.

We sign this agreement in recognition of the fact that whatever is started today will be enhanced through this shared commitment to development our international links and to our institutions working together in the spirit of our founding Missions.

Signed: Thomas KazeeDate: January 31, 2007

Dr. Thomas Kazee
Acting President
Furman University

Signed: V. J. PhilipDate: 31/1/2007

Dr. V.J. Philip
Principal and Secretary
Madras Christian College