

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SAN BERNARDINO
AND MADRAS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, INDIA

To promote academic cooperation, to strengthen educational and cultural ties, to support internationalization efforts on their respective campuses, and to achieve a successful and sustainable collaboration, California State University, San Bernardino, hereafter referred to as "CSUSB," and Madras Christian College, India, hereafter referred to as "MCC" endorse this Memorandum of Understanding.

Subject to applicable laws, regulations and university policies, both institutions will endeavor to encourage direct contact, educational and research cooperation among their constituents, including students, faculty members and staff, departments and research institutes, and will endeavor to cooperate in the fields of interest to both institutions. The parties contemplate the following forms of cooperation:

1. Study abroad programs for MCC students to study at CSUSB for a full academic year, one or two academic semesters, or short term;
2. Study abroad programs for CSUSB students to study at MCC for a full academic year, one or two academic semesters, or short term;
3. Partnerships in academic programs;
4. Special short-term academic and language programs;
5. Exchange of faculty members for research, lectures, and other professional activities;
6. Joint research and professional activities, such as participation in seminars and academic meetings.

Terms, conditions and arrangements (e.g., academic, logistics, financial) of joint activities will be identified and negotiated for each specific case, and must be memorialized in writing and executed by an authorized representative of each institution prior to the commencement of the associated activities.

It is understood that the implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding will commence upon its mutual signing and remain in effect for a period of five years unless one university provides a six-month written notice to the other university to terminate it. Subject to a review, this Memorandum may be renewed for an additional period of five years. Academic and administrative representatives from both institutions will discuss the terms of a renewal at least six months prior to the termination of the current Memorandum of Understanding.

This agreement can be modified upon mutual agreement between academic and administrative representatives of both institutions, provided that any such modification must be memorialized in writing and executed by an authorized representative of each institution.
